

DRY CONSTRUCTION MIXTURES WITH COMPOSITE LIME ASTRINGENT

V. I. LOGANINA¹, L. V. MAKAROVA², R. V. TARASOV³ & K. A. SERGEEVA⁴

¹Professor, Head of Department, Department of Standardization, Certification and Quality, Audit,
Penza State University of Architecture and Construction, Penza, Russia

^{2,3}Associate Professor, Department of Standardization, Certification and Quality, Audit,
Penza State University of Architecture and Construction, Penza, Russia

⁴Research Scholar, Department of Standardization, Certification and Quality, Audit,
Penza State University of Architecture and Construction, Penza, Russia

ABSTRACT

The information about the technology of synthesis of filler based on calcium Hydrosilicates. The article provides information about the properties of dry construction mixtures prepared with a fine composite binder based on calcium hydrosilicates. It is shown that the use of lime composite binder in the formula of dry construction mixtures improves the operational stability of lime topcoat.

KEYWORDS: Dry Construction Mixtures, Resistance, Filler, Calcium Hydrosilicates